Estimated cost. Subject to change	Walmart	flat brushes are used for swiping etc. The 25 set brushes is good to have because there is a large variety of brushes for certain techniques. And the bamboo brush is good for teaching the Sumi Japanese technique which I might add to the class if there is time.
Wax paper at Walmart Paper for covering your work area.	1 @ $1.55	1 roll for mixing colors and creating a palette	$1.55	Walmart	Wax paper is good for mixing, cheaper, and easier than a palette circle.
1 small Dawn detergent.	1 small dawn detergent bottle.	$2.99 estimated price.	$2.99	Home or Walmart for Tupperware containers	Bring a container large enough for all brushes and Dawn detergent cleans

Bring mixing bowls large enough for wide brushes. And I recommend about 3'in diameter, like small sauce container's at least 2 or more water containers, not large but to keep one clean water container for clear swipes of water for blocking technique. Bring rags or paper towels and a small dawn detergent. Great for cleaning your brushes (toxic free)	Small sauce containers they use at pizza stores recycled mixing bowls. Styrofoam plates form meat or coffee cans or Ziplock or any plastic container storage containers Preferred.	for cleaning brushes mixing and holding water bowls	From home Unless you purchase Tupperware at store.		brushes, and it is toxic free. Paper towels and or newspaper or some type of covering for the protection of College tables
